

Retirement of President of MTR Academy

The MTR Corporation today (15 March 2018) announces that Mr Morris Cheung will be retiring from his position as President of the MTR Academy. He has informed the Corporation of his intention to retire upon completion of his contract with the Corporation after 16 July 2018.

Mr Cheung joined the Corporation as a graduate engineer in 1983. During his tenure, Mr Cheung has taken up a number of important senior management positions including as Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360 Limited, Chief of Operations Engineering, Human Resources Director, and European Business Director. He has served in his current role as the President of MTR Academy since 1 July 2016.

"I would like to thank Morris for his commitment and contributions to the Corporation in different roles over his 35 years of service. In particular, his championship of the establishment of the MTR Academy has taken this important initiative forward to realise our vision of nurturing professionals and cultivating excellence and best practices in the railway industry," said Mr Lincoln Leong, Chief Executive Officer of MTR Corporation.

After the retirement of Mr Cheung, Ms Margaret Cheng, Human Resources Director, will oversee the operation of the MTR Academy to ensure a smooth transition until a new President of MTR Academy is appointed.
