MTR Brings Festive Surprises to Customers

Sixteen MTR stations are to be filled with Easter festivities starting today (30 March 2018) as MTR Corporation kicked off a two-day Easter celebration with customers. Customers are welcome to come and join in the fun which continues tomorrow (31 March 2018).

Easter bunny mascots, bunny girls and balloon masters together with MTR staff are distributing Easter gifts and delights to MTR passengers. A youth accordion music band is also performing live at stations to kick-start the roving. This has provided a good platform to showcase their talent while enhancing customers' travelling experience.
