Wander in a dreamy European town!

Located next to Shenzhen’s Window of the World, Melania is a free photo spot trending online. Full of European charm, the town transports visitors to the streets of an foreign country. Cream-orange in colour, an European-style church stands tall in the town, with its pointed roof adorned with colourful stained-glass windows, reflecting sunlight like a Monet painting. Colourful villas are scattered throughout the town, with wisteria and roses climbing up the brick walls. Each building features its own unique design and colours, rich in artistic vibe.

At the heart of the town is the Prague Astronomical Clock. Every hour, mechanical dolls above the clock rotate and play music, while the corresponding fountains spray silver-coloured water streams in rhythm, resembling a delicate mechanical ballet, infusing the town with a romantic and magical atmosphere.

The Renaissance era sculptures are meticulously crafted, with the patterns on the knights’ armour clearly visible, showcasing craftsmanship in every detail. From the church, villas, astronomical clock and fountains, every corner here serves as a perfect spot for stunning photos. Every visitor can find their ideal spot to capture a series of breathtaking European-style masterpieces!

After exploring the town, dusk falls and the carriage lamps in the town begin to glow. The amber light shines through the carved glass, falling on the stone pavement, turning into pieces of gentle illumination. In the distance, the lights of the Eiffel Tower in the Window of the World shine in harmony, creating a fairy-tale night scene.
