

【Shenzhen】Taojinshan Greenway

7 km of mountain & lake views. Wander through Shenzhen's hidden green oasis!

Taojinshan Greenway is a 7-kilometre greenway located on the western side of Shenzhen Reservoir. It has become a popular destination for Hong Kong visitors heading north to seek a refreshing escape into nature. Along the way, visitors can take in views of the Shenzhen Reservoir, Wutong Mountain, Fairy Lake Botanical Garden and Hongfa Temple.

The greenway is divided into the Mountain Hiking Trail and the Greenway Section. The Mountain Hiking Trail begins at Cuiyin Post Station, leading hikers to the highest point at Jinshan Pavilion, where visitors can enjoy views of the Shenzhen Reservoir, Hongfa Temple and the Wutong Mountain TV Tower. The trail then returns to the starting point via "Taojin Lanxiu".

The Greenway Section also starts at Cuiyin Post Station, passing popular photo spots such as "Fengling Terrace" and "Fengling Valley". The valley features cascading waterfalls along the stream. Meanwhile, the air is fresh and pleasant. The trail ends at Dawang Bridge, a white arch bridge offering beautiful views across the reservoir.

If you are visiting with children, the Beaver Park at Cuihu Culture and Sports Park near the start of the trail is also worth a visit. With slides, swings and a sandpit, it is the perfect spot for families to let off steam.
