

MTR Launches Special Fare Days from 11 to 13 May 2019

MTR Corporation will launch Special Fare Days on three consecutive days from 11 to 13 May 2019 to thank customers for their patience and cooperation during the temporary suspension of train service between Central and Admiralty stations on the Tsuen Wan Line on 18 and 19 March 2019.

During the Special Fare Days, Adult Octopus holders travelling on the MTR will enjoy Child Octopus concessionary fares while concessionary Octopus holders will enjoy a flat fare of $1 per domestic journey (except for the Airport Express, MTR Feeder Bus, journeys to and from Lo Wu and Lok Ma Chau stations and East Rail Line First Class Premium). The one-off special fare programme is expected to benefit about 13 million passenger trips.

“The Corporation once again thanks passengers for their patience during the service disruption,” said Mr Adi Lau, Operations Director of MTR Corporation. “We fully understand that no monetary offer can compensate for the inconvenience caused to passengers’ journeys. The Corporation will make its best endeavours to strive for improvement and prevent similar incidents from occurring in future.”

During the Special Fare Days, passengers can enjoy unlimited rides with the special discount. It will also be applied along with other fare promotions including the 25% discount for connecting journeys with the Monthly Pass Extra (for Adult Octopus only) as well as either the interchange discount or the Fare Saver discount. Please refer to the annex for examples of the fare discounts.
