MTR Corporation Appoints New Mainland China Business Director

MTR Corporation announces today (14 December 2022) that Mr Adi Lau, Managing Director – Mainland China Business and Global Operations Standards, will be retiring from the Corporation on 31 December 2022 and that Mr Sammy Wong, Chief of Operating & Metro Segment, will be appointed as Mainland China Business Director with effect from 1 January 2023.

Mr Wong joined the Corporation in 1995. Having taken on different positions within Hong Kong and in Mainland China, he has a wealth of railway operations and management experience. He will be responsible for overseeing the Company's business portfolios in Mainland China.

Dr Jacob Kam, Chief Executive Officer of MTR Corporation, thanked Mr Lau for his tremendous contributions to the Corporation. "In the past 40 years, Mr Lau has made contributions to the railway development in Hong Kong in different positions. I sincerely thank him for his involvement and efforts. I also wish Mr Wong every success in his new appointment," said Dr Kam.

After retiring on 31 December 2022, Mr Lau will assist the Corporation to further reinforce and promote railway operations and maintenance standards by taking up the role of non-executive President of the Global Operations Standards Institute (GOSI) of the Corporation effective 16 January 2023.
