MTR Enhances Local Railway Service during the Labour Day Golden Week Period East Rail Line Extends Last Train from Admiralty to Lo Wu on Designated Dates

MTR Corporation announces today (27 April 2024) that train service on seven local railway lines will be enhanced during the Labour Day and Golden Week holidays. A total of 540 additional train trips will be operated to facilitate passenger travel. Meanwhile, it is expected that there will be an influx of Mainland tourists attending the large-scale concerts at Central Harbourfront on designated dates. Following coordination among relevant government departments and the Corporation, the departure time of the last northbound train from Admiralty Station to Lo Wu Station on the East Rail Line (EAL) will be extended to 11:32 pm. The Lo Wu Control Point will also make corresponding arrangements for visitor immigration clearance procedures.

Train services of seven local railway lines, including the Island Line, Tsuen Wan Line, Kwun Tong Line, South Island Line, Tung Chung Line, Disneyland Resort Line, and Tuen Ma Line will be enhanced during various periods on 1 May (Wednesday) and 4 May to 5 May 2024 (Saturday and Sunday), aiming to provide a convenient service for the public and visitors. (Please refer to the Annex for details of the train service enhancements.)

During the concert period at the Central Harbourfront, the departure time of the last train from Admiralty Station to Lo Wu Station on the East Rail Line will be extended to 11:32 pm. The HKSAR Government will also make corresponding arrangements for visitor immigration clearance procedures at the Lo Wu Control Point. Passengers are advised to take note that the departure time of the last northbound trains from each EAL station to Sheung Shui and the last southbound train from Lo Wu Station will remain unchanged. The departure time for trains traveling to and from Lok Ma Chau Station will also remain unchanged.

In response to the above arrangements, the Corporation will enhance information dissemination. As a higher volume of local passengers and visitors is expected during the Labour Day and the Golden Week holiday, passengers are advised to allocate sufficient time for their journeys. MTR stations and the Hong Kong West Kowloon Station will enhance public announcement and signage, as well as deploying additional staff to assist passengers. The Corporation will closely monitor the operation of various rail lines and arrange train adjustments if needed.
