MTR Announces the Appointment of New Chief Executive Officer

MTR Corporation is pleased to announce today (25 June 2025) that following a global search by the Board, Ms Jeny Yeung Mei-chun, is appointed as the new Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") for a three-year term, with effect from 1 January 2026.

Ms Yeung is currently Managing Director – Hong Kong Transport Services of MTR Corporation. Since joining MTR in 1999, she has held a number of key positions, including Commercial Director from 2011 to 2021, and Hong Kong Transport Services Director in 2021. In 2023, Ms Yeung was appointed Managing Director – Hong Kong Transport Services. She has been instrumental in expanding the station retail and advertising businesses, enhancing customer experience and leading digital transformation and the adoption of innovation and technology to promote smart mobility and smart asset management. She is currently Non-Executive Chairman of Octopus Holdings Limited and two of its group companies, and formerly Chairman of Ngong Ping 360 Limited.

Before joining MTR, Ms Yeung held various marketing and business development positions in Standard Chartered Bank (Hong Kong) Limited and Citibank in Hong Kong.

"As the backbone of Hong Kong's public transport system, MTR plays a crucial role in keeping the city moving. Under the leadership of the current CEO, Dr Jacob Kam, the Corporation has achieved significant milestones in advancing Hong Kong's development and growing sustainably as a business. Dr Kam also led the Corporation in overcoming the difficult challenges of the pandemic and returning the business to normality. The Board is grateful for his remarkable contributions. I am pleased to announce that the Board has appointed Ms Yeung as the next Chief Executive Officer following a global selection process. The advent of innovation and technology continues to create opportunities and pose challenges for businesses and individuals. The new era of artificial intelligence looks set to further accelerate this transformation. With Ms Yeung's strong vision and capability, the Board is confident that the Corporation will continue to leverage its unique positioning in Hong Kong's strategic development in building and serving the community, and harness the opportunities that come our way together with the MTR team," said Dr Rex Auyeung, Chairman of MTR Corporation.

"I am honoured to have taken part in and witnessed the significant growth of MTR, including the public listing, Rail Merger and the completion of 27 railway projects globally including in Hong Kong. The Corporation assigns great importance to talents and people development. We also have professional teams working well together. As Jeny begins her term, I believe that the MTR team will continue its efforts in serving the public, reaching new milestones and that will keep cities moving," said Dr Jacob Kam, Chief Executive Officer of MTR Corporation.

"I am deeply grateful for the Board's trust in me and the MTR team for their continuous support. I am very honoured to take on the role of Chief Executive Officer. As a home-grown Hong Kong company, MTR plays a unique role in the economic and social development and, indeed, the daily life of Hong Kong. With a humble heart, I look forward to building on the Corporation's strong foundation to serve Hong Kong and the cities where MTR operates, and to continue creating value for the society and all our stakeholders," said Ms Yeung, expressing sincere gratitude for the Board's appointment.

Ms Yeung is a non-official member of The Hong Kong Housing Authority as well as its Commercial Properties Committee and the Finance Committee. She is also a member of the Hong Kong Trade Development Council Infrastructure Development Advisory Committee and the Council for Carbon Neutrality and Sustainable Development and an independent non-executive director of Hongkong International Theme Parks Limited.
