MTR Enhances Train Services During National Day Golden Week Period to Facilitate Passenger Travel Themed Activities and Promotions Enrich Joyful Journeys

With the National Day Golden Week around the corner, MTR Corporation will step up local and cross-boundary railway services to facilitate passenger travel during the period. Starting on Wednesday (30 September 2026), East Rail Line services will be enhanced for eight consecutive days, with more frequent train service during designated morning and evening periods. Meanwhile, in coordination with the Chinese Mainland railway authority, High Speed Rail (Hong Kong Section) (HSR) services between Hong Kong West Kowloon Station and Futian Station will also be enhanced for four consecutive days from 1 October. On National Day (1 October), train frequencies on seven heavy rail lines will also be increased to facilitate passengers travelling across the city for various celebratory activities.

To bring extra joy to passengers and visitors, MTR is launching two themed activities: "Golden Circle Treasure Hunt" and "Mickey and Friends Journey with Me". Special installations incorporating unique Hong Kong cultural elements will be featured at designated MTR stations, offering passengers exciting photo opportunities and the chance to redeem limited-edition gifts. In addition, the "High Speed Rail 8th Anniversary Lucky Draw" is now underway, with more than 800,000 prizes up for grabs, adding a unique experience to passengers' journeys during the National Day Golden Week.

Enhanced Services During the National Day Golden Week Period

During the National Day Golden Week period, the number of Chinese Mainland visitors and Hong Kong residents travelling between the Mainland and Hong Kong is expected to increase. MTR will enhance East Rail Line services in both directions between Admiralty and Lo Wu or Lok Ma Chau, during designated morning and evening periods from 30 September to 7 October. In particular, train frequency to and from Lok Ma Chau Station will be enhanced from every 10 minutes to every 8.6 minutes, while services between Admiralty and Sheung Shui stations will also run more frequently. (Please refer to Annex 1 for details.)

On National Day (1 October), train frequencies on seven railway lines (Island Line, Tsuen Wan Line, Kwun Tong Line, South Island Line, Tung Chung Line, East Rail Line and Tuen Ma Line) will be increased during selected periods. Additional services will be provided in the evening to facilitate passengers travelling to celebratory events, including the National Day Fireworks Display. (Please refer to Annex 2 for details.)

For HSR services, following coordination with the Chinese Mainland railway authorities, 13 additional pairs of trains will operate daily between Hong Kong West Kowloon Station and Futian Station from 1 to 4 October to meet cross-boundary travel demand. In addition, starting from tomorrow (29 September), sleeper train services between Hong Kong West Kowloon Station and Beijingxi Station will be extended to Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays for two consecutive weeks, supplementing the regular services from Fridays to Mondays.

Themed Activities Offering Unique Travel Experience

Passengers travelling across the MTR network during the National Day Golden Week period can take part in a range of activities and promotional offers, bringing extra fun and unique experiences to their journeys.

- “Golden Circle Treasure Hunt”¹: From 1 to 7 October, ten designated MTR stations (Hong Kong West Kowloon Station, Tsim Sha Tsui Station, Mong Kok Station, Wong Tai Sin Station, Sha Tin Station, Lok Ma Chau Station, Lo Wu Station, Quarry Bay Station, Kennedy Town Station and Tung Chung Station) will feature limited-time themed pillar and wall installations incorporating iconic Hong Kong cultural elements, including mosaic tiles, red-white-blue bags and rooster bowls, showcasing the city’s distinctive culture in a fun and engaging way. Passengers who share photos posing with the installations at any three of the designated stations on their personal social media platforms will have the opportunity to redeem limited-edition gifts and cash voucher for gold product purchase on a first-come, first-served basis, while stocks last.
- “Mickey and Friends Journey with Me”²: For the first time, beloved Disney characters in brand new Work-and-School looks are appearing at MTR stations. From now until 23 October, seven MTR stations will feature distinctive themed decorations combining MTR’s iconic mosaic station wall designs with unique Hong Kong elements. Highlights include Admiralty Station featuring Donald Duck, Central Station featuring Mickey Mouse, and Kai Tak Station featuring Chip ‘N’ Dale. In addition to taking photos with the themed installations, passengers can participate in the MTR Mobile badge collection for a chance to redeem limited-edition gifts.

- “High Speed Rail 8th Anniversary Lucky Draw”³: This year marks the eighth anniversary of HSR service. Since its launch, cumulative patronage has exceeded 125 million passenger journeys, with the network now offering direct services to 113 destinations. To celebrate this milestone with passengers, MTR is hosting the “High Speed Rail 8th Anniversary Lucky Draw”. The first round of the lucky draw was successfully completed last week, with the remaining two rounds to be held on 30 September and 7 October. MTR Mobile members can enter the lucky draw by visiting the campaign page during designated periods and correctly answering a simple HSR-related question for a chance to win one of more than 800,000 prizes, including HK$3,000 HSR group tour gift vouchers, HSR fare discount vouchers, cash coupons for MTR Shops at Hong Kong West Kowloon Station, dining vouchers for ELEMENTS, Ngong Ping 360 round-trip cable car tickets for two, and a range of exclusive HSR souvenirs.

MTR will closely monitor the operations of all railway lines and implement passenger flow management measures as necessary to maintain smooth station operations. During the National Day Golden Week, Station Ambassadors will be deployed at 11 tourist and cross-boundary stations, including Mong Kok Station, Tsim Sha Tsui Station, Lo Wu Station, Lok Ma Chau Station and Hong Kong West Kowloon Station, to answer passenger enquiries and provide assistance to passengers in need, demonstrating MTR's commitment to delivering quality customer service and hospitality. Passengers are encouraged to check the latest service updates via MTR Mobile and station announcements before travelling and plan their journeys in advance.
