MTR Steps Up Services for East Rail Line and MTR Bus Route K52A Facilitating Tomb Sweeping and Passenger Travels During Chung Yeung Festival Long Weekend

To facilitate passenger travel for tomb sweeping during the Chung Yeung Festival period, MTR Corporation will enhance relevant services, including increasing train frequency on the East Rail Line during selected periods over four consecutive days starting this Friday (16 October 2026). Service of MTR Bus route K52A will also be enhanced on weekends and public holidays this month for the convenience of people travelling between Tuen Mun Station and the Tsang Tsui Columbarium.

East Rail Line services for both Admiralty-bound and Lok Ma Chau/Lo Wu -bound trains will be enhanced during designated morning and evening periods from 16 to 19 October, including Chung Yeung Festival Day (Sunday) and the following day (Monday, a public holiday). Train frequency to Lok Ma Chau Station will be increased from every 10 minutes to every 8.6 minutes, facilitating travel for both cross-boundary passengers and residents along the line. (Please refer to Annex 1 for details.)

For High Speed Rail (Hong Kong Section) services, following coordination with the Chinese Mainland railway authorities, additional pairs of short-haul trains will operate between 16 and 19 October (Friday to Monday), including 2 pairs between Hong Kong West Kowloon Station and Shenzhenbei/Futian stations on 16 October, as well as 10 to 12 additional pairs between Hong Kong West Kowloon Station and Futian Station each day from 17 to 19 October.

For MTR Bus route K52A operating between Tuen Mun Station on the Tuen Ma Line and the Tsang Tsui Columbarium, services will be enhanced with extended hours on Saturdays and Sundays from 3 October to 1 November 2026, and the day following the Chung Yeung Festival. Buses will run at intervals of 15 to 30 minutes for most of the operating period. (Please refer to Annex 2 for details.)

MTR will closely monitor the operations of all railway lines and implement passenger flow management measures when necessary. Passengers are encouraged to check the latest service updates via MTR Mobile and station announcements before travelling, plan their journeys ahead and allow sufficient travelling time.
